

VOL. II.

Don't forget that the County convention will be held Saturday.

Nick Kaminer will occupy his new business house on the 14th.

W. W. Gilt is now daily in receipt of some very fine fish, suitable for epicurians.

Call on Monday, and tell us to wait until you raise a new crop of tobacco and another crop of hogs.

The woodpeckers have arrived and the farmer's claim that their advent rushes in the corn-planting season.

Ladies, don't fail to call and look at James Hinton's fine assortment of flowers to-morrow, when you are in town.

Wm. Hewitt, aged eighty, fell over dead in the fire and came near burning up before he was found, near Owensville.

The drawing for the prize watch at Nebitt's will take place to-morrow. All ticket holders are requested to be present.

Mrs. S. J. Turkey invites everybody to her millinery opening to-morrow. She has a large stock and an elegant trimmer.

The tobacco barn of James Lane, in Bath county, burned Tuesday night. There was $1,800 insurance on the tobacco.

Jack Walters, who has been confined in the Nicholasville jail on the charge of poisoning stock, knocked his jailer down and escaped, Wednesday night.

Fresh strawberries have made their appearance in our markets. They come high—and so does the bottom of each box, which is a little nearer the top than last year's style.

"Rilda" and "Preacher" Reed, two sons of a colored minister, fell out and "died" at Clayville a few nights ago. Three harmless shots were fired with pistols on each side.

The "Lex" organ on "Lex"—[Lexington Transcript].

We see this opportunity of saying that the "Lex" is down in a very "room" style, and has no "down".

A male planted both hind feet under Mr. Crosswell's chin near Rutland, Harrison county, and cut his tongue nearly off, and a Cynthiae cow kicked and broke Miss Kate Dailley's leg.

In tearing down the old market house at Mayville, a jug of whisky was found under the corner stone. Had this been generally known, it would have been torn down by a mob years ago.

Miss Belle Breezing, of Lexington, while out horseback riding Tuesday, her horse fell down and knocked her into unconsciousness. Her physician thinks that brain fever may be the result.

Ladies, when you visit the openings to-morrow, don't fail to call and examine the superior assortment of fancy goods and notions at Mrs. J. E. Paton's, two doors above Odd Fellows' Hall.

Judge Turkey says that the Bourbon News is a journalistic "bushwhacker," and is very justifiable in many of its shots from its masked batteries. All good citizens thoroughly endorse the News.

The young ladies of the Bourbon Female College College May day, and crowned Miss Minnie Haldeman, "Queen of the May," with very appropriate exercises. The throne was erected on the beautiful suburban grounds of the Edgar Institute.

Green Keller, of the Carlisle Mercury, says that the 398 dogs in that town average each, 2,340 barks, and aggregate 921,320 per night, and that the citizens cuss in proportion. Green had his day to bark during the Senatorial primary, so what's the use of him growing now?

The railroad authorities and Hugo Alexander are at loggerheads. The railroad authorities claim that Alexander's saloon near the depot has been erected partly on their grounds. While setting posts for the erection of a fence Wednesday, Alexander caused the arrest of Geo. Collier and a section boss for trespass.

It is reported that the Kentucky Union Company has promised to start the road at Winchester, provided the county will give them the right of way, depot grounds and exemption from taxes for twenty years. The work of constructing the first twenty miles of the road will be to contract in the course of two or three weeks.—[Lexington Press.]

Dr. Wells, a "yarn" doctor in Bath county, has three medicines, the first is dysentery: "Hilobahorum, Lobobahorum and Hilobahorum." One is catarrh, another an emetic and the last a "rank plizen," which will bust his patients open. He makes the first by peeling the bark downward, the second by peeling it upward and the last by peeling it around.

A "HUNG" JURY!

REDMON BAILED IN THE SUM OF $4,000.

After a long and tedious selection of jurors from a venire of 220 men, the trial of Joseph K. Redmon, indicted for the murder of Wm. H. Secret, dragged through the weary hours of several days, followed by several days of speech-making on both sides, and the case was given to the jury Wednesday morning. At about 10 o'clock a. m., the jury came down and reported that they couldn't agree. The Judge sent them back to their room, and about 6 o'clock in the afternoon, they reported again to the Judge that it would be impossible for them to agree, and they were at once discharged.

The jury stood as follows: For the death sentence, Edwin Thompson and Wm. Simpson. For 21 years in the penitentiary: John Trundle, Frank Morris, Letcher Weathers, David Cassidy, A. Forman, Gus Pugh, Jeff Kiser, Jeff Smith. For acquittal: James Henry Talbott, of Shawhan, and George G. Thompson, of Clintonville.

Immediately after the dismissal of the jury, the attorneys for the defense demanded bail, and a bond of $4,000 with George G. White as surety, was proffered, accepted, and the prisoner turned loose. The action of the jury is the subject of much severe comment, although the public anticipated the "hung" jury as soon as it was selected and paraded before the public. The knowing ones who had selected their man or men who would "hang" the jury got badly let down, and were dumfounded when the result was made known.

It is generally conceded now that the Governor will finish up the job, by the transmission of a pardon long before the October days shall have arrived.

EXPRESSIONS ON THE CASE.

We have heard a great many good men—the best men in the city and county—express themselves freely, regarding not only this case, but many others in the State, and all agree to the incompetency of the law to reach criminals under the present jury system. All join in denouncing the proceedings in criminal courts a farce. All appear to be disgusted alike, and say that the State Constitution and the jury system need to be thoroughly revised. We find a few good men who have been in favor of law and order, who have bent their energies toward the enforcement of the law, who have been zealous to the point that every man who loves home and luxury of life, should buckle on his artillery and be prepared to defend his life by even taking the drop on all who prefer to inflict bruises or other bodily harm, for the enforcement of the law is not to be feared.

Phil. Thompson Indicted.

Phil. Thompson Jr., has been indicted for murder, by the Grand Jury at Harrodsburg, will demand bail under the proceedings of the habeas corpus act. Thompson does not appear as yet since the return of the Grand Jury, and for so long time promenade the porch of his residence. A Grand Jury states that there was always perfect unanimity in the jury-room, but that they wanted to act adversely. Another states that two jurors approved indictment, but as it takes four to prevent they came over. Mr. and Mrs. Roth did not testify. The law requires the Clerk to issue a bench warrant within ten days after the adjournment of Court, and he will certainly let the limit run in this case unless interfered with, which is unlikely. Hon. Daniel W. Voorhes has volunteered his services for the defense, and able counsel will be secured for the prosecution.

MRS. THOMPSON INTERVIEWED.

The Courier-Journal has interviewed the wife of Phil Thompson, Jr., and in her interview, denoted bitterly that she had done any wrong beyond drinking too much, and asserted that Miss Buckner had brought all the trouble on in an endeavor to "get even" with Davis' wife, who had refused to recognize Miss Buckner after the scandal which caused her separation from her husband, Mr. Thompson. Mrs. Thompson's story appears to be gaining considerable credence, and there are not a few who think that Phil Thompson was too hasty.

Old Coins.—A half-dime of the coinage of 1804 sold in New York, at a numismatic auction, for $400. A dime of 1796 brought $30; a cent of 1793 brought $26; an inferior specimen of the same date, $15; and the same price was paid for a specimen of 1841. A rare old silver dollar of 1858 and one of 1832 brought respectively $28 and $26.

Mattie Baker, Louisville, says: "Brown's Iron Bitters has given me complete relief from dyspepsia and general depression."

Cross Roads Correspondence.

The standard of journalism in most Kentucky towns is sadly below par, and many editors without brains, independence or anything else but flunkysism, are advertising for correspondents at all cross roads, country stores and mill seats. Below, we give our readers a fair sample of such silly stuff as a vast majority of them report week after week and year after year.

It rained Sunday.

The Rev. Mr. Tugmott preached Sunday.

Rev. Dorsey found another bronze turkey's nest last week.

John Henry has a dog that Peter Perkins killed Sunday, as usual.

We regret to announce that little Billy Saifkins has the measles.

Bill Brown sold a colt to Mrs. Bertha Snipkins for $30 last week.

The Rev. Mr. Boggs will preach at Clintonville Sunday, as usual.

Prayer meeting Wednesday night at Rev. Mr. Stickinther's church. Let all attend.

Our very worthy and very efficient postmaster opened the mail yesterday in two hours.

J. Lumis Smith, our clever and very efficient grocer, expects a large invoice of sugars next week.

Our highly efficient stage driver Billy McGinnis, drove in town in a trot yesterday. Hurrah for Billy!

There was a meeting of the directors of Cucumber Creek Cemetery last week, but we were not advised what was done.

The beautiful and exquisite Miss Mary Jane McGinnis, of Kalamazoo, is the pleasant guest of her cousin Martin McGinnis.

We give notice that if one of the officers of this county is not a little more careful his conduct will be shown up in our paper.

An unknown man coming in on a freight train yesterday fell off the platform of one of the cars and narrowly escaped a severe casualty.

If the young man on Adams street does not stop insulting young lady on her way to the post office we shall feel it to be our duty to publish his name.

Old Grumpy Lickabottle's 14-year-old pullet laid a soft-shelled egg which was pained together with a ligament like the human testis, last week. Can Cradlock beat it?

There is no truth in the rumor that we published last week that a pair of pants had been found in the alley back of the Methodist Church. Persons should be careful how they start such rumors.

Mr. Geewhilkens Stuffleter, a clever and wealthy old widower from Plum Run, has been sent around the spy little widow — a good deal here lately. Better look to your laurels, H. C.

Howard Hoskins, our good friend who lives in a rented house on Tenth street, fell from the top of a wastebasket while he was driving a nail on which to hang a picture and hurt his elbow. Poor Howard.

J. Corwin Argyle's Red Rose Ann Robinson No. 5559 dropped a red cow call with six hind legs just like it's daddy. This will be astounding intelligence to all America and the greater part of Europe.

SCINTILLATIONS.

—Bash Hart and Harry Croxton are wrestling with the mumps.

—Miss Ada Metcalf, late of Carlisle, is to soon wed Mr. E. K. Carnes, of Butler, Mo.

—Only conceit, ignorance, serenity and money enough to dress on are necessary to the production of a dupe.

—Gen. Joseph E. Johnston has been invited to attend the re-union of the First Kentucky Brigade in Lexington next September.

—Mrs. Horace Miller, Mrs. Jno. B. Kennedy and quite a number of citizens from this county, attended the dramatic festival last night.

—The latest agony is for a young lady to have a dog to match her dress. We'd like to see a crushed strawberry dog—in fact any kind of a crushed dog.—[Sunday Argus.]

—"After man, what?" asks a learned professor. Well, Professor, as near as we can make out it's either a Sheriff, woman, or the devil, and sometimes all.

—Sitting Bull is becoming fast civilized. He has become a farmer and joined the church. Now if they will only make him a bank cashier, he can soon distinguish himself by robbing the bank.

—R. T. Nesbitt, of Lebanon, Ky., paid us a call Wednesday. Mr. N. was born in Nicholas and reared in Bourbon. He passed on down to Carlisle, laboring in the interest of his townsman, Hon. Proctor Knott, for Governor.

—An exchange says: "A reformed artist is holding meetings in Boston, assisted by reformed bookkeepers, plumbers, lightening rod men, book agents and weather prophets." One thing is lacking and that is a reformed hireling of the legal profession.

—Thos. Costello, representing the large millinery houses of the Griffith Bros., of Indianapolis, Ind., and Dayton, O., was here Wednesday with a large and elegant line of samples. Tom has dropped the special customer business and now sells to all the milliners in our city. As an evidence of the Griffith Bros., can compete with any house in the West. Tom says that he has had fifteen Kentucky customers to visit their Indianapolis house this season.

MILLERSBURG.

Charlie Brown has pneumonia.

Josh Barton will hold his next Short-horn sale in Chicago.

C. J. Roden is now taking fiducial exercise by the side of a soda fountain.

Frank Barton will take charge, as overseer, his father's farm on the Indian Creek place.

Mrs. I. B. Sandusky has moved down from Lexington, to spend the summer with her father.

A burglar broke into the depot Tuesday night and stole a pistol—the useful thing with all Kentuckians.

W. M. Miller, Jr., and bride returned yesterday from their tour, and were received at home by quite a party of friends.

John A. Miller, Sr., is a candidate for Police Judge, and Perry Hunter, Cargle and Tom Jefferson are candidates for marshal.

Mrs. Josh Barton is taking lessons in making "Oh Bless Our Home" mottoes and other Kensington work, under Mrs. J. E. Paton, in Paris.

Mrs. Aletha Hall, of Mason county, after an absence of 45 years from Millersburg, has arrived here to visit Mrs. Dr. Smith, and her son, the Chancellor.

The Evening Journal, of Jersey City, says of the Rev. Howard Henderson and his new church:

"Simpson M. E. Church, located on Central avenue, is one of the oldest Methodist churches in the city. It has been recently repaired, and has a new organ and a new pastor. The latter is destined to make his mark in this conference. Although yesterday was only his second Sunday as pastor, he has already gained a strong hold, not only upon his congregation, but upon the community, and at every service the building has been crowded by interested audiences. The new pastor, Rev. Howard Henderson, D. D., comes from the South. He is a young man, of very slight physique, so slight that fears of his ability to continue in his work are entertained. He is courageous, however, and preaches with all his powers."

The Trader, Turfman, Farmer and Sportsman.

R. S. Strader, of Lexington, has been selected as starter for the Spring meeting of the Mayville Association.

Only about one crop of tobacco—that of Mr. Palmer, remains unsold in this precinct, says W. T. Oresby.

Don't forget that on Thursday, May 10th, Alex. McClintock & Son will hold their sale of Jersey's at Lexington. Over sixty of the finest animals in the State, will be sold without reserve. Remember the date—Thursday.

Sam M. Pryor, the celebrated hog king of the bluegrass region, has just received from La Place stock farm of W. Stoner, Ills., one of his celebrated Jersey Red sows, out of Pearl, and by Red Man, bred to the famous boar Nugget of Gold, which will farrow in a few days. This breed of sows attained a national reputation at the great stock show in Chicago last fall. This sow is the sister of the barrow that was slaughtered by Mr. Stone at Chicago, which was so much complimented by the butchers. Mr. P. has also purchased from the same party, a male to be delivered in a month or so. These animals were secured at a large cost, and will, with the old Lee herd, add another national feather to the hats of Pryor & Son, for they will breed them in the future to such a height of excellence that the stock here will never be attained. Of course, the two breeds will be kept simon pure.

Lon Leonard of Shawhan, and Miss Susan Small, of Lexington, got married in the Bourbon House parlor Wednesday.

A. B. McElroy, Father of Hon. C. U. McElroy, and an uncle of the Hon. J. Proctor Knott, died at Lebanon, Monday, at an advanced age.

The Thompson-Davis Tragedy.

In a lengthy and very able editorial in the Lexington Transcript, on the morals of the Thompson-Davis tragedy, we are pleased to see the editor take the high moral and christian standpoint which he does, in discussing the question of the enforcement of the "unwritten law" for the preservation of the morals. He says:

"The true sentiment of a good citizen is that the law of the land must and shall be supreme and they must understand that any connivance at the infraction of one, simply sets the entering wedge, establishes a precedent, and paves the way for the violation of any, or all others. Whereas, therefore, Mr. Thompson may not be morally, which is but another name for sentimentally, as culpable for killing a man under the circumstances under discussion, as he would be for killing him for some minor offense, he is just as amenable to the law for the deed, as he would be for the killing of any other man who reads these lines. This being the case, the action of Judge Hardin in granting bail to Mr. Thompson is reprehensible. He has run upon the same rock, that has wrecked the administration of the most promising official in our state; namely, the inability to discriminate between his feeling of personal kindness, and his judicial prerogative. Beyond the shadow of reasonable doubt, the case is not bailable, and the explanation that $5,000 will secure his attendance upon his case is no apology for making it so. $50,000 would not have been inadequate bail though everybody is satisfied that $5 would secure his attendance, and the policy of Mr. Thompson will be to press his case to speedy trial. The error of Judge Hardin consists of the fact that he has forestalled the case, and contributed to the creation of a public sentiment all of which can only be removed with great difficulty, if all, in order to any fair trial of Mr. Thompson."

And in further denunciation of the shot-gun policy for the guardianship of female virtue in Kentucky, the Transcript pours a very level-headed solid shaft into the Courier-Journal, the chief influential organ in the South:

"The Courier-Journal traduces all the virtuous women in Kentucky by its ill-advised defense of the profligate Thompson. The man of his true code of honor" may be belied in this quotation from its editorial of Monday: "Our boast is, and we have a right to make it, and to rejoice in it, that our women are brave, and our women are pure, and it is just such tragedies as this which will keep both virtues uppermost in the minds and hearts of the people." That is to say, that the menace of a pistol and shot-gun is an inducement to our women to maintain their virtue, and if this restraint is withdrawn purity will go with it. Could a more diabolical insult than this be offered to our women? But the C.J., not content with this, goes on to apostrophize the shot-gun theory, and adds "long may the policy prevail, nate sentinel by our women." Nonsense! Kentucky women do not need such a guardian of their virtue. Each one is a genuine unto herself. Standing firm on the instincts of true womanhood, and the culture of Christian impulses, she bids defiance to ill-will passion, and would die rather than surrender her honor. This is the grand conception of a woman, and such a woman is worth defending to the death. Above all, her conduct is the best defense. Even the wisest of men stand in profound reverence in the presence of true virtue. We believe the mothers, wives and daughters are virtuous women. We spit upon the accursedness of the policy which is supposed to be sentimentality, that demands, or even suggests, a guard of pistols and shot-guns for their honor. If there are women of easy virtue, there is no need of guarding the honor which they have not. On what, then, is this murderous and damnable shot-gun theory based?"

CONNECTICUT is about to take a step in the right direction and establish a board of pardons. It is to consist of the Governor, Judge of the Supreme Court and four members of the Legislature. It will require the unanimous vote of the board to pardon. Kentucky ought to have such a law and not allow an old imbecile to set the judgments of the Courts at naught. —[Interior Journal.]

The first instance where physicians are mentioned in the Bible is 2d Chronicles, xvi: 12, 13—"And Asa in the thirty and ninth year of his reign was diseased in his feet, until his disease was exceeding great: yet in his disease he sought not to the Lord, but to the physicians. And Asa slept with his fathers."

A BILL has been introduced in the Michigan legislature which provides that a man, by giving notice to his heirs, may prove his will during his lifetime; after which it shall be unassailable. The lawyers of that State are all opposed to the measure.

We are deeply pained to learn that no more cyclone reports will be sent out by the weather bureau. Persons desiring cyclones will now have to pay the hard cash for them. There has been too much bad weather lost by the abominable credit system.

In Owen county, the wife of Evan Settle brought suit for $675, which was just three times the amount won from her husband by J. A. Moore, and gained the suit—the General Statutes sustaining suit for triple the amount lost.

The farce called Circuit Court being over, now we'll have something realistic in way of a Democratic convention Saturday and a circus Wednesday. Life would be suicidal in a too form, without these merry little pastimes.

The result of Saturday's primaries in Christian pledges the county to Knott, Jones, Allen, Hardin, Tate, Hewitt, Edgar and possibly Sheldon. Shelby county also instructed for Knott.

ROSCOE CONKLING is reported as being anxious to see Samuel J. Tilden President. Had Mr. Conkling done his duty and lived up to his convictions six years ago last winter, Mr. Tilden would have been President.

Gov. BLACKBURN has pardoned Elijah Dagny (colored), who was sentenced to the penitentiary for life in 1867 for murder. No convict in the prison has served so long a term.

Although there is a chance that Phil Thompson will be stricken at court justice will not be retarded unto him. Mark our words: He will plead the insanity dodge.

Cast your vote for Knott, Young, Pickett, Sheldon and Hewitt tomorrow.

Oh, My Back!

That's a common expression and has a world of meaning. How much suffering is summed up in it.

The singular thing about it is, that pain in the back is occasioned by so many things. May be caused by kidney disease, liver complaint, consumption, cold, rheumatism, dyspepsia, overwork, nervous debility, &c.

Whatever the cause, don't neglect it. Something is wrong and needs prompt attention. No medicine has yet been discovered that will so quickly and surely cure such diseases as BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, and it does this by commencing at the foundation, and making the blood pure and rich.

Legonport, Ind. Dec. 1, 1882.
For a long time I have been a sufferer from a kidney disease. My appetite was very poor and the very smallest food I did not digest with me. I was annoyed very much from retention of urine. I tried many remedies with little or no success. I used Brown's Iron Bitters. Since I used that my appetite is simply immense. My general health is such, that I feel as if I could do anything. Brown's Iron Bitters for one month, has gained twenty pounds in weight.
O. E. SARGENT.

Leading physicians and clergymen use and recommend BROWN'S IRON BITTERS. It has cured others suffering as you are, and it will cure you.

CARPETS!

The attention of the citizens of Bourbon and surrounding counties is respectfully called to my spring stock of carpets, which were never prettier, cheaper, and more abundant in stock.

The High-Bred Trotting Stallion

GOLDSMITH,

BY RYSDYK'S HAMBLETONIAN

His dam, Lady Hulce, by Imported

Truette, (thoroughbred.)

Will make the season of 1883, at my stable, at Millersburg, Ky., at $25 To Insure a Living Colt.

Money due when the mare foals or is parted with. No other horse in Kentucky, of equal breeding and merit, stands for less than $50.

GOLDSMITH is a rich brown, heavy mane and tail, 15 hands, 3 inches high strong bone, fine action, remarkably good disposition and sound in every particular. His colts are uniformly large, smooth and well guided. He was sold by Mr. Alden Goldsmith when a colt to D. B. Haight, Dover Plains, N. Y., and owned by him until sold to me.

Mares from a distance kept 30 days, on grass, free. No responsibility for accidents. One of the best.

YOUNG BLACK JACKS

In Kentucky, 154 hands high, will serve mares at TEN DOLLARS and Jennets at TWENTY DOLLARS for living colt.

No variation in price.

Lien retained on all colts of horse and jack until season money is paid.

ATTENTION, HORSEMEN!

We call the attention of the farmers and breeders of horse stock, that I breed my place, horses for beauty and symmetry as well as for trotting purposes. If a careful inspection is due to the sire and offspring of said horse, I would then most respectfully call attention to Caliban and his offspring—some ten or twelve of which can now be seen at my stable. Caliban will be permitted to serve a limited number of mares the coming season, offered by first-class men, (no others need apply) at $25 to insure.

Caliban has a record of 2:34, and in the opinion of such horsemen as Mr. L. Herr, he could have trotted as well or better than 2:30 on the day which he has record. Two of Caliban's yearling colts showed better than a four minute gait on my indifferent track last Spring.

I will call the attention to the fact that Mainline Child, with the Fletch and Gray cross, has produced some of our most noted horses. I breed for speed as well as sixteens-hands high horses, high style and range.

Caliban is the sire of Cyclone and Counter, both with records better than 2:27.

STANDARD BEARER.

This celebrated horse will make the season of '83, at my stable, three miles from Millersburg and six from Paris, on the Jackstown pike, at Ten Dollars The Season, or Fifteen Dollars to insure a living colt.

STANDARD BEARER is a bay, foaled 1867; fifteen hands and three inches high; by Volunteer; dam, by Rock's Abdallah Chet; Volunteer, by Rysdyk's Hambletonian.

Like all the sons of Volunteer, Standard Bearer is proving himself a fine stock horse; his produce being large, finely formed, with superb action.

Also, my three-years-old youngjack,

Lord Wellington,

15 hands and 1 inch high, good bone and length, will stand at Ten Dollars to insure a living colt.

Money due in both cases when the colt comes or mare part with—a lien retained on the colts until season money is paid.
